2011 will mark the 50th Anniversary of the Columbus Arts Festival. To celebrate this momentous occasion, local artists from Franklin and surrounding counties were called to submit designs for the Columbus Arts Festival Commemorative Print. The ideal work will capture the spirit and vibrancy of the arts in Columbus—and represent the impact the Columbus Arts Festival has had on the city over the past 50 years.

In late 2010, a blind jury selected the top 10 entries. In January of 2011 the public will have the opportunity to vote for the winning piece.

My entry was juried as a finalist. To help me win the Commemorative Print Competition (and the grand prize of $1000) cast your vote for my painting "Columbus Arts Festival" by clicking the button below or the web address to the left.

Thank you for your support
